

Philanthropy that heals.

Providence Alaska Foundation Legacy Society Declaration of Intent

Thank you for remembering Providence Alaska Foundation in your estate plans. Signing your Declaration of Intent is not legally binding, and may be revoked or revised at any time. However, signing your Declaration of Intent allows us to work together now on your intentions for your gift, making sure we are clear about and honor your legacy and desired philanthropy goals. It helps us tell your story, inspiring others and especially the people your gift will impact. It also allows us to acknowledge and recognize you for your gift now. Thank you for taking the time to make your intentions known, and for your philanthropy that heals!

A. As my commitment to the mission of Providence Alaska Foundation, it is my intention to help provide for the future of healthcare in Alaska with a gift through (please circle):

My will My retirement plan My life insurance policy Other _____

B. In the approximate amount of $ _____ or _____ % (Indication of amount or percentage is optional)

C. I/we wish my gift to benefit (Please check one):

Where it is needed most Please use my gift to: _____

D. I/we give Providence Alaska Foundation permission to include my name on the list of its Legacy Society donors. I/we would like to be listed as : _____

Name: _____
Address: _____
City, State, Zip: _____
Phone number: _____
Email address: _____

E. Tell us your story! What motivated your gift? What impact do you wish your gift to have?

F. Though this letter of intent is an expression of my current plans, I understand that I may modify or revoke it at any time and that it is not a legal obligation binding me or my estate. I understand that Providence Alaska Foundation cannot act as executor of a donor’s estate.

Signature

Date

Providence Alaska Foundation Tax Identification Number: 92-0093565

Thank you for your Philanthropy that Heals.