ARTICLE 3: MEDICAL STAFF COMMITTEES

3.A. MEDICAL STAFF COMMITTEES AND FUNCTIONS
(a) This Article outlines the Medical Staff Committees that carry out Medical Staff functions, including performance improvement and peer review functions.
(b) Procedures for the appointment of Committee chairs and members of the Committees are set forth in the Medical Staff Bylaws.

3.B. MEETINGS, REPORTS, AND RECOMMENDATIONS
Unless otherwise indicated, each Committee described in this Manual shall meet as necessary to accomplish its functions and shall maintain a permanent record of its findings, proceedings, and actions. Each Committee shall make a timely written report to the Medical Executive Committee and to other Committees and individuals as may be indicated in this Manual. The Medical Executive Committee may consider reports as part of a consent agenda.

3.C. ANTIMICROBIAL STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE
3.C.1 Composition
The Antimicrobial Stewardship Committee shall consist of:
(a) The Infectious Diseases/Antimicrobial Stewardship (ID/AMS) Pharmacist and ID Physician/Antimicrobial Stewardship Medical Director;
(b) Representation from Infection Control, Microbiology, and Information Technology;
(c) Up to nine (9) voluntary representatives of the Medical Staff from Providence Alaska Medical Center are designated as voting members of this committee;
(d) Representation from nursing service; and
(e) Other hospital personnel as needed.

3.C.2 Duties
The Antimicrobial Stewardship Committee at Providence Alaska Medical Center evaluates the clinical use of antimicrobial agents and develops policies for managing the use and administration of these medications. The actions of this committee are intended to optimize the use of antimicrobial agents with the overall goal of improving patient care, minimizing unintended consequences of antimicrobial use, and providing cost-effective therapy. Antimicrobial agent includes prescription medications, sample medications, or over-the-counter medications used on or administered to persons to diagnose, treat, or prevent viral, fungal, or bacterial infectious diseases. This committee shall work in conjunction with the Providence Health and Services System Antimicrobial Stewardship Subcommittee to serve in optimizing antimicrobial usage within Providence Alaska Medical Center in order to improve patient outcomes, reduce adverse consequences of antimicrobial use, and ensure cost-effective therapy. It shall perform the following specific functions:

(a) Assist in the formulation of broad professional policies regarding the procurement, prescribing, monitoring, and all other matters relating to the utilization of antimicrobial agents in the hospital;
(b) Develop clinical pathways/local guidelines to address disease states/clinical practice areas in which utilization of antimicrobial therapy is common;
(c) Establish programs and procedures that optimize cost-effective drug therapy;
(d) Participate in quality assurance activities related to distribution, administration, and use of antimicrobial agents (e.g., SCIP compliance and CMS audits);
(e) Initiate, direct, and/or review drug use evaluation programs and studies pertaining to antimicrobial agents, in order to make appropriate recommendations and optimize use;
(f) Evaluate all significant adverse drug reactions reported by the Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee that pertain directly to antimicrobial agents and make recommendations to prevent their reoccurrence;
(g) Collaborate with the Infection Control Committee on issues directly pertaining to antimicrobial agents themselves and/or their appropriate use; and
(h) Disseminate information on its actions and approved recommendations to the healthcare staff as appropriate via infection control committee, who in turn reports to MEC.

3.C.3 Meetings
The Antimicrobial Stewardship Committee shall meet at least every other month. Meeting notices will be sent to members at least one week prior to the meeting.

3.D. BLOOD UTILIZATION REVIEW COMMITTEE

3.D.1 Composition
The Blood Utilization Review Committee shall consist of:

(a) Voting Members One voting representative from the following specialties:

(v) Representation from nursing service and dietary

(b) Ex-officio Members (non-voting)
(i) Other hospital personnel as needed (non-voting members and ad hoc experts on specific subject matter).

3.L.2 Duties

The committee shall work in conjunction with the System Medication Therapeutics Committee, to make final decisions regarding formulary content with the goal of creating one standard Providence Health and Services (PH&S) formulary:

(a) Medication: Medication includes prescription medications, sample medications, herbal remedies, vitamins, nutraceuticals, over-the-counter drugs, vaccines, diagnostic and contrast agents used on or administered to persons to diagnose, treat, or prevent disease or other abnormal conditions; radioactive medications; respiratory therapy treatments; parenteral nutrition; blood derivatives; intravenous solutions (plain, with electrolytes and/or drugs); and any product designated by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) as a drug. The definition of medication does not include enteral nutrition solutions (which are considered food products), oxygen, and other medical gases.

(b) PAMC and its providers will be engaged in the centralized PH&S formulary determination process, which ensures patients of Providence and its affiliates are provided with safe, high-quality, and affordable medications throughout the continuum of care.

(c) The PAMC Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee accepts and adheres to the outcomes of the centralized PH&S formulary process.

(d) The PAMC Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee meetings will include and document decisions of the PH&S formulary committee, which is comprised of representatives from medicine, pharmacy, and nursing throughout the system and continuum of care.

(e) The PAMC Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee, or an individual provider in coordination with a P&T lead pharmacist, may petition a PH&S formulary decision through the centralized PH&S formulary appeal process with the understanding the burden of proof of value (safety, efficacy, cost) is on those who advocate the alternative.

(f) The committee shall serve in an evaluative, educational and advisory capacity to the Medical Staff and hospital administration in all matters pertaining to the use of medications.

(g) It shall perform the following specific functions:
(i) Assist in the formulation of broad professional policies regarding the evaluation, selection, procurement, storage, distribution, use, safety procedures and all other matters relating to drugs in the hospital;
(ii) Approve which emergency medications and/or supplies will be readily available in patient care areas with input from respective committees;
(iii) Establish programs and procedures that help ensure cost-effective drug therapy;
(iv) Participate in performance improvement activities related to distribution, administration and use of medications;
(v) Initiate, direct or review drug use evaluation programs and studies and make appropriate recommendations to optimize drug use;
(vi) Monitor and evaluate all significant adverse drug reactions and make recommendations to prevent their reoccurrence;
(vii) Establish and review medication safety initiatives;
(viii) In collaboration with the PH&S formulary determination process, develop and provide for continuous revision, a formulary or list of drugs accepted for use in the organization using written criteria*, for determining what medications are available for dispensing or administration. *(Indication, clinical effectiveness, pharmacokinetics, comparative trials, population specific considerations, benefits over similar formulary agents, contraindications, warnings, precautions, adverse reactions, drug interactions, risk for medication errors, abuse potential, sentinel events and other safety issues, dosing, product availability, cost); and
(ix) Disseminate information on its actions and approved recommendations to the healthcare staff.

3.L.3 Meetings
The P&T Committee shall meet at least 5 times per year. Meeting notices will be sent to members at least one week prior to the meeting. The committee may meet jointly with the comparable committee at Alaska Regional Medical Center, where such collaboration promotes patient safety initiatives provided that, no peer review information shall be shared absent direction from Medical Staff and Administration leadership. PAMC shall independently comply with applicable accreditation and regulatory requirements.
